

Part 58
Mark 15:1-20
The Trial and the Sentencing of Jesus

LEAVING
A MARK

STORIES OF THE UNSTOPPABLE JESUS

TRUSTING AND TREASURING HIM SUPREMELY...TOGETHER

A photograph of a beach with waves crashing onto the shore. The sky is overcast with a dark, moody tone. In the foreground, there are faint, dark, swirling lines in the sand, possibly from a previous slide.

1. The trial and the sentencing of Jesus announced man's rejection of Jesus.

- His divinity was denounced.
- His holiness was dishonored.
- His righteousness was despised.
- His love was denied.

2. The trial and the sentencing of Jesus affirmed the innocence of Jesus.

- Judas said that Jesus was innocent.
- Pilate could find no fault with Him.
- Herod could not condemn Him.
- Pilate's wife claimed that He was innocent.

3. The trial and the sentencing of Jesus advanced the mission of Jesus.

- The silence of Jesus sent a thundering message that He delights in doing the will of His Father to bring Him glory.
- The silence of Jesus sent a thundering message that He is determined to bear the wrath of the Father for our sin to bring us joy.
